AYACHI HAMMAMI

TARGETED FOR SPEAKING TRUTH TO POWER

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Ayachi Hammami is a Tunisian human rights lawyer, husband, father and grandfather who has spent decades defending victims of injustice and advocating for human rights and judicial independence. Friends describe him as a "young soul" who loves astronomy, classical music and long walks with his dog, Arya. Now he's in prison, simply for defending human rights.

SPEAKING OUT AGAINST REPRESSION

Since President Kais Saied's power grab in 2021, Ayachi has openly criticized the growing repression and authoritarianism in Tunisia. He has defended lawyers, judges, journalists and opposition figures targeted simply for expressing dissent peacefully.

PUNISHED FOR DEFENDING OTHERS

After representing defendants in the notorious "conspiracy case", a mass trial in which opposition figures were accused of plotting against state security, Ayachi himself was accused of terrorism-related offences in the same case.

A SHAM TRIAL AND PRISON SENTENCE

In April 2025, following a sham trial that lasted only minutes, Ayachi was sentenced to eight years in prison. An appeal court reduced his sentence to five years in November 2025. He was jailed days later and went on a 45-day hunger strike to protest his arbitrary detention.

COURAGE IN THE FACE OF REPRESSION

Ayachi's imprisonment exposes how Tunisian authorities are increasingly abusing the criminal justice system to punish critics, intimidate lawyers and silence those who challenge abuses of power. Yet even in prison, Ayachi continues to inspire others through his courage, integrity and unwavering commitment to justice.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Call for the immediate and unconditional release of Ayachi Hammami, as he is detained solely for his peaceful human rights activism and legal work.
- Send Ayachi a postcard to let him know you support him.

↓ SUGGESTED TEXT

Your Excellency,

Ayachi Hammami is a prominent human rights lawyer who has dedicated his life to defending justice, the rule of law and human rights. On 2 December 2025, he was arrested to begin serving an unjust five-year prison sentence imposed after an unfair trial on politically motivated charges in the so-called "conspiracy case".

He was sentenced solely for peacefully exercising his human rights and carrying out his professional duties as a lawyer and should never have been arrested in the first place.

I urge you to immediately and unconditionally release Ayachi Hammami, quash his unjust conviction and sentence, and end the misuse of the criminal justice system to silence lawyers, human rights defenders and other peaceful critics.

Yours sincerely,

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Daria Egereva is an Indigenous rights defender from Russia facing up to 20 years in prison for her peaceful activism. A climate justice advocate and proud member of the Selkup People, she has dedicated her life to protecting Indigenous lands, languages and cultures. Despite threats and detention, Daria has remained courageous and committed to defending her people's rights.

CONNECTION TO NATURE

Friends describe Daria as warm, sociable and deeply compassionate. She loves reading and long walks outdoors and often speaks about growing up in Siberia's taiga forests, where she gathered berries with her family and built a deep connection to nature.

DEFENDING HER PEOPLE'S RIGHTS

Born in Siberia, Daria belongs to the Selkup Indigenous People, a community of about 3,500 people. She trained as a teacher before becoming a respected advocate for Indigenous rights and climate justice.

CRIMINALIZED FOR PEACEFUL ACTIVISM

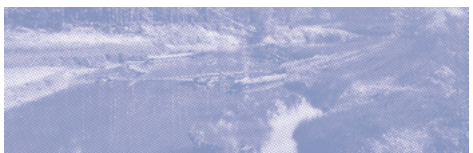

In 2024, Russia's Supreme Court labeled 172 organizations linked to ethnic minorities or Indigenous Peoples as “terrorist". In December 2025, the authorities detained Daria, accusing her of involvement with an Indigenous rights network they had designated “terrorist”, despite her work focusing on the protection of Indigenous lands, languages and cultures. Today, Daria faces up to 20 years in prison.

COURAGE IN THE FACE OF INJUSTICE

Daria’s case reflects a broader pattern of using “extremism” and “terrorism” accusations to silence activists and discourage dissent. Despite growing pressure, Daria refused to abandon her values and continued to stand up for her people with courage and determination.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Call for the immediate and unconditional release of Daria Egereva and for an end to the repression of Indigenous activists exercising their rights across Russia.

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Marwa Arafa is a 33-year-old Egyptian human rights activist, translator and mother. She has been unjustly imprisoned for nearly six years solely because of her peaceful activism. Marwa supported families of people detained for political reasons and children who had been detained themselves. Sadly, her own daughter is now growing up without her.

MUSIC, CINEMA AND BAKING

Marwa loves listening to artists such as Shadia, Warda, Fairuz, Jewel, Reba McEntire, Big & Rich and Whitney Houston. She also enjoys dancing, cinema, theatre and watching series such as Grey's Anatomy. Cooking and baking are among her greatest passions. Friends and family say food is one of the ways she shows love and care for others. For the past six years, she has been unable to enjoy these passions.

FORCIBLY DISAPPEARED

In April 2020, Egyptian security forces raided the home of a friend where Marwa was staying and forcibly disappeared her for two weeks. She was later charged with unfounded terrorism-related offences and now faces an unfair trial that could result in life imprisonment.

ABUSE OF TERRORISM LAWS

Marwa is being punished for showing solidarity with detainees, speaking out against abuses affecting children and helping families cover the costs of prison visits. Her case illustrates how Egypt's terrorism laws are used to target peaceful critics, human rights defenders and others perceived as opposing those in power.

HEALTH PROBLEMS

Her daughter, now 8 years old, continues to struggle with the separation. Marwa's health has seriously deteriorated in prison, where she has been denied adequate healthcare. Despite this, she remains hopeful and draws strength from her love for her daughter and her belief in justice.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Call on the president of Egypt to immediately and unconditionally release Marwa Arafa.

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Humphrey Polepole is a Tanzanian politician and former diplomat. In October 2025, state security agents abducted him from his home. He has not been seen since. Humphrey appears to have been targeted because he is an outspoken critic of the government, having criticized the President and the ruling party. His family miss him dearly and deserve answers.

CONCERNS ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT

In May 2025, Humphrey, then Tanzania's ambassador to Cuba and the Caribbean region, returned to Tanzania from Cuba. Two months later, he resigned, citing concerns about the government's disregard for the rule of law and human rights. Following his resignation, he became an outspoken critic of the administration.

ABDUCTED BY SECURITY AGENTS

On 6 October 2025, Humphrey was abducted from his home in Dar es Salaam, by unidentified state security agents. His family found the front door broken and blood at the scene. They have been unable to reach him since. His mother frequently walks around her home calling out "Humphrey, where are you?"

OUTSPOKEN CRITIC

Humphrey appears to have been targeted because of his criticism of the President and the ruling party over restrictions on civic space, crackdowns on human rights, and attacks on the political opposition. His enforced disappearance reflects authorities' use of authoritarian practices to punish and silence dissent.

HE SHOULD BE HOME

Humphrey is an active and loving member of his community. He supports vulnerable people, regularly visiting orphanages and organizing seminars for the youth on political participation. His family – including his elderly mother, who he cares for, and beloved dog, Fighter – miss him dearly. He should be at home with them.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Call on the Tanzanian authorities to immediately disclose Humphrey's fate and whereabouts.
- Send Humphrey's family a postcard to let them know you support them.

IMPRISONED BECAUSE HE STOOD UP FOR DEMOCRACY

WRITE FOR RIGHTS

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Owen Chow joined his first pro-democracy protest in Hong Kong at just 15 years old. He later became one of the activists prosecuted under Hong Kong's draconian National Security Law. Owen should be free to enjoy the things he loves such as photography, hiking and travelling. Instead, he faces more than 12 years in prison for hoping to build a fairer society.

SYSTEMIC INJUSTICE

Owen was born into a working-class family in Hong Kong. His father was chronically ill, and the family of seven relied on social welfare. At 15, Owen cared for his father after school each day until his death. That same year, he attended his first pro-democracy march, realizing that his family's hardships reflected systemic injustice rather than individual misfortune.

UMBRELLA MOVEMENT

In 2014, candidates seeking election in Hong Kong had to be approved by the Chinese government, which also considered how critical they were of China. Owen saw this as an attack on freedom of expression and joined the Umbrella Movement. Protesters carried umbrellas to protect themselves from the sun and from pepper spray used by police.

12 YEARS IN PRISON

In 2020, Beijing imposed a draconian National Security Law on Hong Kong, crushing political opposition, silencing independent media, and forcing civil society groups to close. That year, Owen and 46 others organised primary elections to determine which candidates had genuine public support. Authorities accused them of conspiracy to commit subversion. He was arrested in 2021 and later sentenced to more than 12 years in prison. He may not be released until 2032.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- Call on the Hong Kong authorities to immediately and unconditionally release Owen Chow.
- Send Owen a postcard to let him know you support him.

↓ SUGGESTED TEXT

Dear Chief Executive,

Owen Chow is a former nursing student who has been convicted of "conspiracy to commit subversion" under the National Security Law after standing in unofficial "primaries" for elections to be held in Hong Kong in 2020. He was arrested in 2021 and by 2024 had been sentenced to more than 12 years in prison. His prosecution and conviction are part of a wider crackdown on the rights to freedom of expression, peaceful assembly and political participation in Hong Kong.

I urge you to immediately and unconditionally release Owen Chow and stop using the National Security Law to criminalize the peaceful exercise of human rights.

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Imaan Mazari-Hazir and Hadi Ali Chattha are human rights lawyers and a married couple in their thirties. When they're not working long hours, they love eating out and meeting up with friends. But that is no longer possible. On 24 January 2026, they received long prison sentences for social media posts expressing solidarity with activists and criticizing the Pakistani military.

DEFENDING HUMAN RIGHTS TOGETHER

Imaan, the daughter of a former politician and human rights minister, has dedicated her life to defending human rights. Hadi combined teaching law with his legal practice. He frequently worked on cases involving gender-based violence and censorship. The couple met while representing the same client. After their marriage, they started working together in Islamabad.

SILENCED FOR THEIR WORK

Throughout their careers, they have represented victims of state oppression, despite the risks involved. Both have previously been arrested and targeted because of their activism. Now, the authorities are using imprisonment to silence them after surveillance, threats and short-term detention, failed to stop their work. Imaan said: "Not once have I considered stopping my advocacy work due to these threats. If you keep looking over your shoulder, it derails you from the cause and your detractors win."

LOCKED UP AND KEPT APART

Their conviction illustrates how the Pakistani authorities use the justice system to restrict freedom of expression, silence critics and punish human rights lawyers. Imaan and Hadi should be free to continue their vital work and enjoy the lives they have built together. Instead, they have been locked up and kept apart.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

WRITE A LETTER CHANGE A LIFE

Rokiatou Doumbia is a business owner, activist and social media influencer from Mali. Through TikTok, she created a space where her 175,000 followers could speak openly about daily struggles like rising food prices. In March 2023, two days after one of her live TikTok broadcasts, she was arrested. She faces years in prison.

LIVE TIKTOK BROADCAST

On 11 March 2023, during a live TikTok broadcast, Rokiatou spoke about the high cost of living in Bamako, Mali's capital, especially of basic goods. She cited the price of peppers as an example. This earned her the nicknames 'Rose Poivron' (bell pepper in French) and 'Auntie Rose High Cost of Living'. She also criticized the military regime that has ruled Mali since May 2021, pointing to its failure to curb armed conflict and violence across the country.

10 YEARS' IMPRISONMENT

Two days later, on 13 March 2023, she was arrested. She was charged with "incitement to revolt", "disturbing public order", "discrediting the state" and "criminal conspiracy". Two weeks later, additional charges were filed against her.

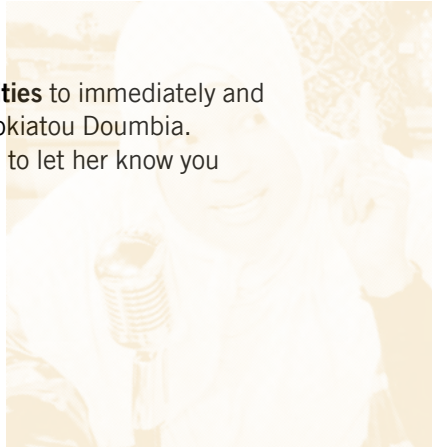

Although two charges were later quashed, Rokiatou was sentenced in August 2026 to ten years' imprisonment: seven years in prison and three years suspended. Rokiatou's detention reflects a wider crackdown in Mali, where authorities increasingly use arrests and criminal charges to silence critics.

SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES

Rokiatou supported her children and other relatives. She helped people in need, distributed food and organised clean-up campaigns. Her detention has had serious consequences for those who depend on her. She should be free and reunited with her loved ones.
